SPORT MANAGEMENT GENERAL MANAGEMENT

The mission of the Sport Management degree program is to educate students to become reflective, principled, knowledgeable, and creative learners who will succeed in the global sport management community in the 21st century. Sports are a major provider of high dollar entertainment which makes the industry very business oriented. The Sports Management program at MU allows students exposure to modern methods of business communication, sport marketing, sport finance and economics, ethical and legal issues in sport business, event management and more. Students have the opportunity to gain firsthand experience by completing internships within sport business settings.

YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

Take a Community Based Learning (CBL) class that connects course content to the community. Stay engaged and make a difference.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish!

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Attend an intercultural festival or event on campus or in town.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Join the Marshall Mentor Network and connect with professionals in your field to discuss your major, career path, and more.

Meet with a career education specialist to conduct a "gap analysis." Figure out the skills you'll need for the career you want while you still have time to build them.

Your degree requires a pre-internship next year. Start planning now! Meet with your advisor to discuss.

Want to continue your education and increase your opportunities? Talk to a faculty member about whether graduate school fits your career goals.

Run for Student Government and represent your fellow students while making a longterm difference on Marshall's campus.

Join professional associations in your field, just as the North American Society for Sports Management.

YEAR THREE

Develop relationships with professors who can serve as future references by attending their office hours.

Join or create a club or organization on campus about a particular issue you care about. Marshall has more than 200 student organizations.

Prepare to present at the COHP Research Day in April.

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

Your degree requires an internship next year. Start planning now! Meet with your advisor to discuss your internship options.

Explore peer leadership opportunities through the FAM Program, or apply to be a UNI Peer Mentor.

Think about who can help you grow as a student and a professional (professors, advisors, alumni, etc.) and ask at least one to be your mentor.

YEAR FOUR

This is it! Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Senior Eval to see what requirements you have left.

Networking is key! Attend a Career Expo to seek employment opportunities and network with employers in your field.

Join professional associations in your field, such as the Sports Marketing Association.

Think about who can help you grow as a student and a professional (professors, advisors, alumni, etc.) and ask at least one to be your mentor.

Complete graduate admissions exams (GRE, MCAT, LSAT) the summer before your senior year.

Strengthen your resume and enhance your presentation skills. Present what you've learned at an academic conference off campus.

Be at the top of your professional game! Prepare a final resume and practice your interview skills with a career coach in Career Education.
