CREATIVE WRITING — 2020-2021

YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Save your work. You never know what paper might evolve into your Capstone Project one day.

Meet with your advisor to create a customized 4-year plan that works for you.

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish.

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

Attend Pizza and Professors and Visiting Writer Series events to learn more about your field.

YEAR TWO

YEAR THREE

Run for the English Department's Student Advisory Board or for SGA: represent your fellow students while making a difference on campus.

Don't enter your field with zero experience! Secure an internship related to your field of study.

Submit your work for publication

(perhaps to our English Department

literary magazine, Et Cetera).

This is it! Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Senior Eval to see what requirements you have left.

Run for the English Department's

Student Advisory Board or for SGA:

represent your fellow students while making a difference on campus.

Submit your work for publication

(perhaps to our English Department

literary magazine, Et Cetera).

Complete admissions exams (LSAT or GRE, if your intended grad program requires it) the summer before your senior year.

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill

Want to continue your education and increase your opportunities? Talk to a faculty member about whether graduate school fits your career goals.

YEAR FOUR

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Take a Community Based Learning (CBL) class that connects course content to the community. Stay engaged and make a difference.

Take ENG 350 and ENG 355, the foundation courses you need for your major.

Submit your work for publication (perhaps to our English Department literary magazine, Et Cetera).

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill

Attend Pizza and Professors and Visiting Writer Series events to learn more about your field.

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

Prepare to present at the COLA Undergraduate Research and Creativity Conference in April.

Passionate about good writing? Apply to work on the Et Cetera editorial staff or as a Writing Center tutor.

Don't enter your field with zero experience! Secure an internship related to your field of study.

Be at the top of your professional game! Prepare a final resume and practice your interview skills with a career coach in Career Education.
