MAJOR INFORMATION

- The total number of free electives will depend on the amount of double and triple counting of requirements. Core II and COLA requirements may not be double counted.
- See course attributes each semester for courses that meet multiple requirements.
- Questions about requirements should be directed to your English Department advisor (304-696-6600) or to the College of Liberal Arts (304-696-2350).
- Forty-eight credit hours (sixteen 3-hour courses) must be at the 300/400 level.

- Students must earn a C or better in ENG 201, all ENG courses for the major, and all foreign language courses.
- Minimum of 120 hours to graduate.
- ENG 355 and 499 are not offered in summer.
- English majors will fulfill the university's requirements for WI classes by taking the ENG classes required for the major.
- ENG 350 must be taken within the first 9 hours of coursework within the major. ENG 499 cannot be taken until 12 hours of ENG coursework at the 400-level has been completed with a grade of C or better.

YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Save your work. You never know what paper might evolve into your Capstone Project one day.

Meet with your advisor to create a customized 4-year plan that works for you.

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish.

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

Attend Pizza and Professors and Visiting Writer Series events to learn more about your field.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Take a Community Based Learning (CBL) class that connects course content to the community. Stay engaged and make a difference.

Take ENG 350 and ENG 355, the foundation courses you need for your major.

Submit your work for publication (perhaps to our English Department literary magazine, Et Cetera).

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill set.

YEAR THREE

Run for the English Department's Student Advisory Board or for SGA: represent your fellow students while making a difference on campus.

Don't enter your field with zero experience! Secure an internship related to your field of study.

Submit your work for publication (perhaps to our English Department literary magazine, Et Cetera).

Complete admissions exams (LSAT or GRE, if your intended grad program requires it) the summer before your senior year.

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill set.

Want to continue your education and increase your opportunities? Talk to a faculty member about whether graduate school fits your career goals.

YEAR FOUR

This is it! Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Senior Eval to see what requirements you have left.

Run for the English Department's Student Advisory Board or for SGA: represent your fellow students while making a difference on campus.

Submit your work for publication (perhaps to our English Department literary magazine, Et Cetera).

Prepare to present at the COLA Undergraduate Research and Creativity Conference in April.

Passionate about good writing? Apply to work on the Et Cetera editorial staff or as a Writing Center tutor.

Don't enter your field with zero experience! Secure an internship related to your field of study.

Be at the top of your professional game! Prepare a final resume and practice your interview skills with a career coach in Career Education.
