MAJOR INFORMATION

- The total number of free electives will depend on the amount of double and triple counting of requirements.
- See course attributes each semester for courses that meet multiple requirements.
- Questions about requirements should be directed to the College of Liberal Arts (304-696-2350). Core II and COLA requirements may not be double counted.
- Forty-eight credit hours (sixteen 3-hour courses) must be at the 300/400 level.
- Students must earn a C or better in ENG 201 and all foreign language courses.
- Minimum of 120 hours to graduate, with at least 48 hours at the 300/400 level.

The program consists of 33 hours of coursework in three parts:

- Three courses introducing the specific goals and methods of the three disciplines (9 hours). These courses place special emphasis on the particular discipline's approaches to knowledge, critical thought, skills of expression, and human development. Students must choose from those listed as follows, one for each discipline: Classics: Any 200-level course, except CL 200; Philosophy: any 200 or 300 level course, except 302 and 304; Religious Studies: 205, 206, 300.
- Department-Approved Courses (15 hours) to be chosen by the student, usually with the advice of a committee of faculty members. Each major may select a small advisory committee to assist with course selection, advising, and long-range planning.
- Three interdisciplinary, team-taught courses (9 hours), in any combination of levels, but including at least one at the 400 level as the senior capstone experience.

MY ADVISOR'S NAME IS:

HUMANITIES PHILOSOPHY

The Humanities major offers concentrations in Classics, Philosophy, and Religious Studies (CL/PHL/RST). This major is unique in two ways: Students may choose coursework equivalent to a major in a single department or create a broader curriculum of their choice from various humanities courses, and our program also has a strong interdisciplinary side. The goal of the program is to help us deepen our understanding of ourselves and our culture by exploring the way human beings find meaning in their experience. We explore these ways by studying both our own individual insights and the artistic, philosophical and religious works that have expressed and shaped human experience.

YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

Your degree requires a minor. Think about how to enhance your major with a minor that gives you a related skill set.

Attend an event in the Amicus Curiae Lecture Series.

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

Run for Student Government and represent your fellow students while making a longterm difference on Marshall's Campus.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish!

YEAR THREE

Want to continue your education and increase your opportunities? Talk to a faculty member about whether graduate school fits your career.

Prepare to present at the COLA Undergraduate Research and Creativity Conference in April.

Networking is key! Attend a Career Expo to seek employment opportunities and network with employers in your field.

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

No need to wait until graduate school. Discuss undergraduate research opportunities with faculty in your major right now.

Attend an intercultural festival or even on campus or in town.

Take an elective course that links diversity to your field of study.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Attend an intercultural festival or event on campus or in town.

Prepare to present at the COLA Undergraduate Research and Creativity Conference in April.

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill set.

Take a career self-assessment to help determine what majors fit your talents and interests.

Join the Marshall Mentor Network and connect with professionals in your field to discuss your major, career path, and more.

Join a club or organization on campus about a particular issue you care about. Marshall has more than 200 student organizations.

YEAR FOUR

This is it! Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Senior Eval to see what requirements you have left.

No need to wait until graduate school. Discuss undergraduate research opportunities with faculty in your major right now.

Take an elective course that links diversity to your field of study.

Attend an intercultural festival or event on campus or in town.

Prepare to present at the COLA Undergraduate Research and Creativity Conference in April.

Be at the top of your professional game! Prepare a final resume and practice your interview skills with a career coach in Career Education.
