YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish!

Attend an intercultural festival or event on campus or in town.

Take a career self-assessment to help determine what majors and minors fit your talents and interests.

Join the Communication Studies Student Club.

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Run for Student Government and represent your fellow students while making a longterm difference on Marshall's Campus.

Join the Thundering Word, Marshall University's competitive, internationally known Speech and Debate Team.

Attend an intercultural festival or event on campus or in town.

College is a great time to experience the world! Consider studying abroad in the summer, during Spring Break, or for an entire semester.

Meet with a career education specialist to conduct a "gap analysis." Figure out the skills you'll need for the career you want while you still have time to build them.

Attend civic meetings, such as the school board, neighborhood associations, city council, or important state legislative sessions.

YEAR THREE

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

Join professional organizations such as the National Communication Association and see the cutting edge of the field.

Consider applying for a summer internship. Check with the Director of Undergraduate Studies in the department or with the Office of Career Education.

Networking is key! Attend a Career Expo to seek employment opportunities and network with employers in your field.

Join the Thundering Word, Marshall University's competitive, internationally known Speech and Debate Team.

Explore peer leadership opportunities through the FAM Program, or apply to be a UNI Peer Mentor.

National Student Exchange: Study away for one semester and gain a different perspective. Choose from institutions across the US, US territories, or Canada.

YEAR FOUR

This is it! Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Senior Eval to see what requirements you have left.

No need to wait until graduate school. Discuss undergraduate research opportunities with faculty in your major right now.

Join Lambda Pi Eta, the National Communications Honor Society, to be recognized for your hard work and enjoy post-graduation benefits.

Prepare to present at the COLA Undergraduate Research and Creativity Conference in April.

Explore peer leadership opportunities through the FAM Program, or apply to be a UNI Peer Mentor.

Want to continue your education and increase your opportunities for career advancement? Talk to our Graduate Director about whether graduate school fits your career goals.

Be at the top of your professional game! Prepare a final resume and practice your interview skills with a career coach in Career Education.
