MAJOR INFORMATION

- The total number of free electives will depend on the amount of double and triple counting of requirements. Core II and COLA requirements may not be double counted.
- See course attributes each semester for courses that meet multiple requirements.
- Questions about requirements should be directed to your English Department advisor (304-696-6600) or to the College of Liberal Arts (304-696-2350).
- Forty-eight credit hours (sixteen 3-hour courses) must be at the 300/400 level.
- Students must earn a C or better in ENG 201, all ENG courses for the major, and all foreign language courses.
- Minimum of 120 hours to graduate.
- ENG 350, 355, and 499 are not offered in summer. ENG 350 must be taken within the first 9 hours of coursework within the major.
- Courses that will satisfy the Literary Studies Elective hours include 200, 200H, 203, 206, 207, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 220, 221, 225, 231, 232, 235, 236, 240, 241, 242, 263, (280-289 when so designated by Chair), 344, 409, 410, 411, 412, 414, 415, 416, 421, 422, 423, 424, 427, 228, 430, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 440, 442, 447, 450, 451, 455, 458, (and 480-88 when so designated by Chair).
- No more than six hours of 200-level may count toward the BA degree in Literary Studies.
- Literary Studies majors who carefully select courses can earn a double major in Creative Writing by taking only 4 additional Creative Writing classes. Meet with your advisor to plan your choices.

LITERARY STUDIES

A Literary Studies degree can give you the critical thinking, writing, and presentation skills you'll need for success in this quick and quickly-changing world. Our program is flexible, so you can pursue a wide range of interests. Our courses give you the ability to think differently, to expand on and augment the ideas and work made in all fields, not just literature. Where you go from here is up to you (though we've got some ideas for you). But our courses are designed to hone not just your writing, but your thinking skills, too. Our faculty and staff are dedicated. All this to say, really, we plan on preparing you for a successful professional life as well as an invaluable way of thinking, about everything.

YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish.

Save your work. You never know what paper might evolve into your Capstone Project one day.

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

Meet with your advisor to create a customized 4-year plan that works for you.

Attend Pizza and Professors as well as Visiting Writer Series events to learn more about your field.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Submit your work for publication (perhaps to our English Department literary magazine, Et Cetera).

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill set.

Take a Community Based Learning (CBL) class that connects course content to the community. Stay engaged and make a difference.

Attend Pizza and Professors and Visiting Writer Series events to learn more about your field.

Take ENG 350 and ENG 355, the foundation courses you need for your major.

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

YEAR THREE

Run for the English Department's Student Advisory Board or for SGA: represent your fellow students while making a difference on campus.

Complete admissions exams (LSAT or GRE, if your intended grad program requires it) the summer before your senior year.

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

Don't enter your field with zero experience! Secure an internship related to your field of study.

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill set.

Submit your work for publication (perhaps to our English Department literary magazine, Et Cetera).

Want to continue your education and increase your opportunities? Talk to a faculty member about whether graduate school fits your career goals.

YEAR FOUR

This is it! Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Senior Eval to see what requirements you have left.

Prepare to present at the COLA Undergraduate Research and Creativity Conference in April.

Passionate about good writing? Apply to work on the Et Cetera editorial staff or as a Writing Center tutor.
