

A New Journey Begins

LEWIS COLLEGE
OF BUSINESS

Monday Morning Memo from the desk of Dean Don Capener

January 29, 2024

Dean Capener Speaks at the Rotary Club of Huntington

The event took place at Cellar Door Restaurant in Pullman Plaza on Monday, January 22. Dr. Deepak Subedi, Department Chair of Management and HealthCare Administration and Dr. Uday Tate, Professor of Marketing also attended the event.

Dean Capener spoke to the Rotary about how the Lewis College of Business has a strong legacy and a new home. He presented his background including his experiences in advertising, marketing technology, and higher education. He also explained the college's vision and growth areas such as international partnerships and recruiting.

According to Dean Capener, "I was honored to speak to 35 business leaders from the Huntington WV area on Monday. I have a great respect for Rotary International and its mission. To seek truth and to serve the community are truly admirable qualities and an asset for this community. I can see how impactful Rotary is to West Virginia. I am grateful for their interest and support of Marshall University."
